Boys' Corn Club Prizes

The following boys received prizes in the boys' corn club during the year 1915:

Ned Williams received first prize, a short course at Clemson college; he made 108 bushels of corn on one acre.

Lloyd Jones received second prize, a short course at Clemson college; he made 85 bushels.

Ivy Hendricks received $10 for the best ten-ear exhibit.

Furman Davis received a prize of two pigs.

Felix Howe received a prize of one pig.

Tommy Newton, Isaac Newton, Lem Carnes, Mac Atkinson, Homer Kelley, Willie Chapman, Hovey Brown, Luther Evans, Richard Hallum, Jr., and Matt Dillard were awarded a subscription to a farm paper.

Six Mile school No. 2 was awarded a prize of $10 for having the largest number of boys in the club that made reports.

The club has been very successful this year. It will be continued next year.

T. A. Bowen and R. T. Hallum will organize a pig club next year. Particulars of the club will be announced the first of the year.

Pumpkintown News

"Christmas likker" is getting ripe in Pumpkintown. I think it is a shame to make the birthday of the Prince of Peace a time of drunkenness, fighting, cursing and all other sorts of rottenness. In fact, the real meaning of the day seems to be lost in some places. There are boys and girls right here in Pickens county who have not the slightest idea of what the real meaning of the word Christmas is. I can tell you why: Cursing, swearing, drinking, shooting, yelling and everything else that resembles the lower regions do not in any way suggest the Birthday of the Christ.

B. F. Hendricks left here Sunday for Cedar Mountain, N. C. where he will attend Eagle's Normal Musical Institute, which began a sixty-day session there Monday. This is the third time Mr. Hendricks has crossed the Blue Ridge to attend Prof. Eagle's school. He is making rapid strides toward the mastery of music, and bids fair to become one of the South's many efficient music teachers, in a few years. When he gets his "sheep skin," we hope Mr. Hendricks will come back to Pumpkintown and give us a big dose of musical enthusiasm.

We had quite a storm and some high water here last Friday night. Some of the oldest people around here say that the Oolenoy was higher Saturday morning than it has been in many years.

Mr. Galbreath who lived here the last two years, has moved to the cotton mill at Pickens.

Oolenoy News

Oolenoy, Dec. 20.—This week Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Simmons leave for their new home near the old Camp Ground, on the Twelve Mile. These people were born and reared in this immediate vicinity. They are among our oldest and most respected citizens. They have scores of friends, both young and old, who are loath to have them go. Their hospitality and kindly faces will long be remembered in their old home. Our good wishes attend them.

Oolenoy suffers another loss in that Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hicks, formerly of Belton, but for the past four years residents of this place, have decided to locate near Hartwell, Ga. This family has been identified with the best interests of the community and their loss will be felt.

An event of unusual interest, for the first part of the holidays, is the wedding of Mr. Norman Freeman of the Loopers section to Miss Bessie Virginia, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jones, on Thursday, Dec. 23.

Camp No. 577, W. O. W., hold their annual banquet during the holiday season. This a much-looked-forward-to affair, and this one will be no exception to the rule.

The teachers in the graded school here will leave the latter of the week for a vacation of two weeks—Prof. W. M. Hammond and sister, Miss Emma, to Seneca, and Miss Annie Laurie Williams to Wagner.

Paul Edens, a much-liked and popular member of the younger set, leaves the 27th for Clearwater, Kas., where he joins his uncle, Dr. J. T. Edens of that place. He will probably make his home in the Sunflower state.

Card of Thanks

Words fail to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their many deeds of kindness and love which they so freely bestowed on us in the long illness and death of our dear husband and father. Their kind administrations have helped to lighten this heavy sorrow, and that our Heavenly Father abundantly bless and graciously reward them is our earnest prayer. Mrs. William B. Mauldin and Family.

Mile Creek School Honor Roll

Fifth Grade—Russell Martin, O. V. Roper.
Sixth Grade—Odus Dalton, Homer Nix, Dora Chapman, Ruth Pickens.
Seventh Grade—Pauline Dalton, Annie Lee Martin.
MISS BENNIE DUCKWORTH, Prin.

J. L. Looper's gin will run on Tuesdays and Saturdays until end of the season. 33

Cedar Rock Items

J. W. Stewart made a business trip to Greenville last week. Misses Kate Robinson and Nettie Lancaster of Greenville were the week-end guests of Mrs. J. W. Stewart.

H. Grayson Miller, on his way from Rochester, N. Y., to Mobile, Ala., spent a week with homefolks. He will be in charge of one of the largest studios in the south, located in Mobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hays visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Hays, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Spearman and children are spending a few days with the latter's brother, Mr. Henderson, of Clemson.

Richard Watson of the Fairview section was in this vicinity Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Singleton and sister, Ada H. Miller, were the guests of H. D. Singleton and family last Sunday.

After living one year on his farm Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pickens have moved back to their home in Easley.

Rev. Willis and wife of the Six Mile academy spent the week-end at the home of H. D. Singleton. He delivered an eloquent sermon to the people of Enon last Sunday.

Messrs. Z. T. Jones and Curry (the latter being one of the efficient teachers of Cedar Rock school), were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jones Sunday.

Weldon Jones was visiting in the Fairview section Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Smith were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Melton Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hamlin and son of Anderson are visiting at the home of Gaston Hamlin.

After spending a few days with his father, John Boggs and wife have returned to their home in Marion, N. C.

Mr. Dempsey and family, who lived with B. H. Williams the past year, have moved to Anderson.

Rev. D. W. Hiott was the guest of J. A. Jones and family Sunday. SUSIE.

Pleasant Grove News

Rev. J. E. Foster of Marietta route 2 was in this section last week on business.

Jimmie Phillips of Greenville is spending a few days with friends in this community.

D. L. Barker and Jimmie Phillips attended worship at Marietta last Sunday.

V. A. Rigdon has sold his farm to J. S. Fortner and Rigdon is going to move to Greenville.

Improved land is bringing from twenty-five to forty dollars per acre in this section. We would be glad to have a number of good people locate in this part of Pickens county, as there is some vacant land for sale at a bargain. Homeseekers, come this way and find a bargain.

A. J. Fortner sold a tract of land some few days ago to Riley Moody of Greenville, the price being $25 dollars per acre.

W. D. Hendricks now has his sawmill on W. A. Master's place cutting lumber to build Mr. Masters a dwelling house.

Prof. Clyde Griffin of Oolenoy is teaching our winter term of school. Mr. Griffin is giving satisfaction in his school.

George M. Fortner has been confined to his bed for the past week with sickness but is improving at this writing.

A FARMER.

A Great Convention

The Baptist state convention, held in Greenville last week, was perhaps the greatest meeting ever held by that body. The meeting was largely attended. The entertainment was all that could be desired.

The opening address by Dr. Z. T. Cody, the address on missions by Dr. J. E. White Sunday evening and the address by Dr. D. M. Ramsay on education were among the greatest addresses ever heard by this or any other convention. Other speeches were good, but these stand out as epoch-making speeches. The influence will continue with us as long as memory holds good.

My home during the meeting was with Mr. and Mrs. John M. Geor, whose kindness will never be forgotten.

The music by the orchestra of Greenville Woman's college and choir of the First Baptist church was simply grand.

Dr. Z. T. Cody had been the president for the past three years—and we have never had a better. He declined re-election, and Maj. T. T. Hyde, mayor of Charleston, was elected president.

The next convention will be held in Newberry next December. H.

Married

Married, by J. B. Newbery, J. P., at his residence Sunday, Dec. 19, Mrs. Mazura Revis of Liberty to Charles P. Park of Catachee.

Miss Pearl Capus and Richard M. Gilstrap of Easley route 1 were married Sunday by J. B. Newbery, J. P., at his residence in Pickens. We extend congratulations to this happy young couple.
